

Corporate Citizenship's Internship Programme New Vacancy

Corporate Citizenship is a specialist global corporate responsibility (CR) consultancy comprising a team of over 30 people drawn from a diverse range of backgrounds with offices in London and New York. Our clients include over half of the FTSE 100 – they value our strategic business approach and international perspective.

Position summary: The Intern will support the company's research team with a primary focus on assignments related to all aspects of corporate responsibility and sustainable development. There will be an opportunity to be involved in project areas such as: assurance, stakeholder engagement, corporate responsibility strategy, supply chains, corporate community investment consulting and briefing services. In addition, there will be occasions to provide ad-hoc admin support.

Term: 4 months

Skills: A demonstrable interest and knowledge of corporate social responsibility issues and passionate about the positive contribution business can make to society and development; superior research and writing skills; ability to work as part of a small team; excellent communication skills – written, oral, presentation.

Application Procedure:

To apply, please send a CV and covering letter, highlighting your suitability for the role to Sue Woolcott, Corporate Citizenship, Holborn Gate, 330 High Holborn, London WC1V 7QG or by email to: sue.woolcott@corporate-citizenship.com.

Please note that only successful applicants will be contacted.

Application Deadline: August 2nd 2010 (Interviews will be held from week commencing 9th August 2010)

Start Date: Immediate

Location: London and candidates must be eligible to work in the UK.

Salary: £15,350 per annum (pro rata)

www.corporate-citizenship.com
www.lbg-online.net
www.ccbriefing.co.uk